

Adrian Turner email

PharmD

Clinical Pharmacist, neurology, rehabilitation, gastroenterology and nephrology

Tenure at Cook Children's: 2015

Residency rotations: PGY1 and PGY2: General pediatrics, Neurology

Education: University of Mississippi School of Pharmacy

Postgraduate training: PGY1, Johns Hopkins All Children's Hospital

Get to know Adrian Turner

Areas of interest, research and professional involvement:

Areas of interest: Epilepsy, acute migraine therapies, autoimmune encephalitis

Research: Intranasal ketamine for abortive migraine therapy, application of pharmacogenomics for medication dosing, prevention of medication related kidney injury initiatives

Professional involvement: ASHP, APhA, PPA, International Headache Society (past platform presenter), CCMC Research Subcommittee (chair)

More about me: I love travel, coffee and various crafting classes from time to time. I also enjoy staying active, reading good non-fiction books and listening to podcasts, but I especially love spending time with my pup, Grayson.