

PPE recommendations

when caring for suspected COVID-19 patients

IF YOU ARE	PERFORMING THIS ACTIVITY	THIS PPE IS REQUIRED
Direct patient caregiver (nurse, doctor, RRT, etc.)	Providing direct patient care (non-aerosolized)	medical mask 	gown 	gloves 	eye shield
Direct patient caregiver (nurse, doctor, RRT, etc.)	Carrying out aerosolized procedures* (intubation, bronchoscopy, nebulizer, suctioning, collection of viral samples)	medical mask (over N-95 mask) 	N-95 mask 	gown 	gloves 	goggles
EVS staff	Entering the room	medical mask 	gown 	gloves 	closed-toe shoes

*This is not an all-inclusive list.

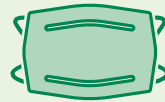

As of 5/14/20: These are the current recommendations for PPE in caring for patients with COVID-19. New recommendations do not require negative pressure unless there are aerosol-generating procedures. Sources: CDC.gov and World Health Organization

IF YOU ARE

Direct patient caregiver
(nurse, doctor, RRT, EVS, etc.)

THIS PPE IS REQUIRED AT ALL TIMES

medical mask
(over N-95 mask)

gown

gloves

goggles

N-95 mask

If you are providing care to a COVID-19 positive patient, you must wear an N-95 mask.

As of 5/14/20: These are the current recommendations for PPE in caring for patients with COVID-19.

Sources: CDC.gov and World Health Organization

Command Center phone: 682-885-1791 or ext. 51791