

PPE recommendations

when caring for pending or suspected COVID-19 positive patients

The minimum PPE required for all patient encounters is a mask and eye protection.

IF YOU ARE	PERFORMING THIS ACTIVITY	THIS PPE IS REQUIRED
Direct patient caregiver (nurse, doctor, RRT, etc.)	Providing direct patient care (non-aerosolized)	medical mask 	gown 	gloves 	face shield or safety glasses <small>various eye protections available</small>
Direct patient caregiver (nurse, doctor, RRT, etc.)	Carrying out aerosolized procedures* (intubation, bronchoscopy, nebulizer, suctioning, collection of viral samples)	medical mask <small>(over N-95 mask)</small> 	N-95 mask 	gown 	gloves 	FULL face shield or goggles
EVS staff	Entering the room	medical mask 	gown 	gloves 	closed-toe shoes 	face shield or safety glasses <small>various eye protections available</small>

Effective: 11/2/2020

*This is not an all-inclusive list. Sources: CDC.gov and World Health Organization

PPE requirements

when caring for COVID-19 positive patients

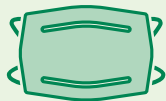

The minimum PPE required for all patient encounters is a mask and eye protection.

IF YOU ARE

Direct patient caregiver (nurse, doctor, RRT, EVS, etc.)

THIS PPE IS REQUIRED AT ALL TIMES

medical mask
(over N-95 mask)

N-95 mask

gown

gloves

FULL face shield
or goggles

If you are providing care to a COVID-19 positive patient, you must wear an N-95 mask.

Effective: 11/2/2020

Sources: CDC.gov and World Health Organization